A WORD FROM OUR ST VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

Hi Folks,

The Hunter's Hill conference of the Saint Vincent DePaul Society is delighted to be given the opportunity to highlight its work within the Hunter's Hill parish.

We are a group of 10 Volunteers who service a base of some 60-70 clients.

A client is any person who for whatever reason finds themselves in financial difficulty, and is subsequently undergoing the stress of not being able to cope with life's day to day demands.

The members of the conference meet fortnightly in the Parish Hall, at which time we review and plan our programs, of both giving help and of appealing for the funds we need to be able to meet the needs of our clients.

Assistance may go beyond food and emergency funding.

It may include meeting the costs of professional assistance to treat mental health disorders, establishing accommodation for clients escaping domestic violence, out of pocket medical and dental treatments and budgeting finances.

While the Vinnie's corporate strategy firmly places its volunteer base at the top of the decision tree as far as how client's needs are best met, there is a corporate entity which looks after the day to day running of the charity and ensures it's viability.

Please visit - www.vinnies.org.au - for a full description of Vinnies' Mission.

On a local level however, I think the "Vinnies Way" can best be described as follows.

HARRY

Harry drops his aiches
He'll say things like "ell it's ot"
Because Harry's quite a lot of things
But a word-smith? - He's just not

He's done some sleeping on the street
So his disposition's none too sweet
A touch of larceny gets him by
And he comes across a little sly

He's obnoxious - sometimes smelly
Watches too much daytime telly
Has a chronic health condition
Definitely due to poor nutrition

You might not have him home to dinner
You'd have trouble with his manner
He's got chips on both his shoulders
And he comes across as bold as...

He drinks a little when he can
A balanced diet's not in his plan

Mostly lives from hand to mouth
He's life is generally heading south

His ship came in, but then it went
His youth, his looks and liver spent
And often he just hits the wall
That's when he gives "The Vinnies" a call

He'll ask if someone could drop by
With few bucks and a bit of food
And he'll promise then to really try
To find a job and make things good

And God knows we'll help him
That's what we do
But we couldn't do it
Without you

You give whatever you can spare
To help to fill the needs out there
Of those feeling lost and living low
That have nowhere else that they can go.

Thank You.

Tony Aduckiewicz, President Hunters Hill Conference.

Fr Brian had a busy weekend celebrating his golden jubilee. On Friday night he went to dinner with the parish council, where he entertained everyone with stories of his younger days in the seminary.

He celebrated mass on Sunday morning with Fr Kevin and Fr Asaeli Raass Vuicakau who was one of his former students.

We were blessed to have the Fiji Sydney Catholic Chaplaincy joining us with their glorious music as well as families from Villa Maria primary school.

There were also some surprises, videos from Fiji as well as one of his former pupils flying in from Perth just for the occasion.

THANK YOU TO THE ALTAR SOCIETY

Fathers Brian and Kevin would like to thank the Altar Society for the gift of a beautiful gold-embroidered altar cloth. It is a truly wonderful and thoughtful gift.

THANK YOU TO ALL INVOLVED

Thank you to all involved in organising the celebrations for both Father Brian and Father Kevin.

This Week... SCRIPTURE ZONE

<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/121921.cfm>

First Reading*Kings 19:16, 19-21

The Lord said to Elijah: 'Go, you are to anoint Elisha son of Shaphat, of Abel Meholah, as prophet to succeed you.'

Leaving there, Elijah came to Elisha son of Shaphat as he was ploughing behind twelve yoke of oxen, he himself being with the twelfth. Elijah passed near to him and threw his cloak over him. Elisha left his oxen and ran after Elijah. 'Let me kiss my father and mother, then I will follow you' he said. Elijah answered, 'Go, go back; for have I done anything to you?' Elisha turned away, took the pair of oxen and slaughtered them. He used the plough for cooking the oxen, then gave to his men, who ate. He then rose, and followed Elijah and became his servant.

Response*Psalm Ps 15:1-2, 5, 7-11

R. You are my inheritance, O Lord.

Preserve me, God, I take refuge in you.

I say to the Lord: 'You are my God.'

O Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup;

it is you yourself who are my prize. R.

I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel,
who even at night directs my heart.
I keep the Lord ever in my sight:
since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm. R.

And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad;
even my body shall rest in safety.
For you will not leave my soul among the dead,
nor let your beloved know decay. R.

You will show me the path of life,
the fullness of joy in your presence,
at your right hand happiness for ever. R.

Second Reading
Galatians 5:1, 13-18

When Christ freed us, he meant us to remain free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery.

My brothers, you were called, as you know, to liberty; but be careful, or this liberty will provide an opening for self-indulgence. Serve one another, rather, in works of love, since the whole of the Law is summarised in a single command: Love your neighbour as yourself. If you go snapping at each other and tearing each other to pieces, you had better watch or you will destroy the whole community.

Let me put it like this: if you are guided by the Spirit you will be in no danger of yielding to self-indulgence, since self-indulgence is the opposite of the Spirit, the Spirit is totally against such a thing, and it is precisely because the two are so opposed that you do not always carry out your good intentions. If you are led by the Spirit, no law can touch you.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia!

Speak, O Lord, your servant is listening;

You have the words of everlasting life.

Alleluia!

Gospel*Luke 9:51-62

As the time drew near for him to be taken up to heaven, Jesus resolutely took the road for Jerusalem and sent messengers ahead of him. These set out, and they went into a Samaritan village to make preparations for him, but the people would not receive him because he was making for Jerusalem. Seeing this, the disciples James and John said, 'Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to burn them up?' But he turned and rebuked them, and they went off to another village.

As they travelled along they met a man on the road who said to him, 'I will follow you wherever you go.' Jesus answered, 'Foxes have holes and the birds of air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.'

Another to whom he said, 'Follow me,' replied, 'Let me go and bury my father first.' But he answered, 'Leave the dead to bury the dead; your duty is to go and spread the news of the kingdom of God.'

Another said, 'I will follow you, sir, but first let me go and say good-bye to my people at home.' Jesus said to him, 'Once the hand is laid on the plough, no one who looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.'

OUR PARISH PRAYER

Loving God,

you are the home for our hearts' deepest longings.

We find our way as families and as individuals only in you, through our brother Jesus, encouraged by the breath of your Spirit.

We thank you for all the blessings we enjoy in our parish family.

May we continue to share our gifts of life and love with glad and generous hearts.

May our world be somehow more alive because we have passed this way.

May Mary our parish patron continue to inspire us as we give new birth to your Word in our turn.

We make our prayer in Jesus' Name. Amen.
