Some of you will remember the entertaining British comedy, "Keeping up Appearances" with the unstoppable Hyacinth Bucket (pronounced Bouquet!) and her hapless husband Richard. Mrs Bucket's passion was as the program's name suggests, looking good, being seen at all the right places, having connections with all the right people. Everything, but everything, had to be just right when she was entertaining visitors.

The neighbours, finding her too overbearing, did everything they could to avoid being invited to her parties, but rarely succeeded!

She was constantly frustrated by her out-of-shape bogan brother Onslow and his wife. Onslow, in total contrast to his sister couldn't care less who he was with and what anyone thought of him. No keeping up appearances for him. It made for entertaining and sometimes hilarious viewing.

On reflection, we can see that Hyacinth was holding up a mirror to us all.

We live in a society where keeping up appearances takes up a great deal of our time, financial, emotional and other resources. In a culture like ours we can all be sucked up into the world of image and appearance, and so easily lose touch with the things in life that matter most.

Of course we all want to look our best, to fit in, to be accepted and to play our part in the life of our community.

However, we can put ourselves under enormous pressure if we imagine that we are in a kind of competition with each other to "succeed", whatever that means, to appear on top of things, and to be seen, like Mrs Bucket, with the right people, wearing the right outfits and looking as wealthy as "the others".

We hear of people putting themselves under untenable financial pressure, living beyond their means, renting in areas they can't really afford, showing up to the most costly of social gatherings and then finding themselves unable to honour some of their basic financial commitments such as fees for their children's education! It's hard to imagine the stress this puts on a person, a marriage and a family. And to what end? To which we might get a reply: "Well, we want the best for our kids."

A question then occurs, is it really the best for our kids when we can't afford what we regard as "the best", and spend so much energy paddling like mad underwater, just so we can stay afloat. What an exhausting way to live!

In the Beatitudes, Jesus encourages us to be what he called "poor in spirit." Living this life of the poor in spirit, we receive all that life offers us as gift. This includes our joys, our sufferings, our work, our wealth and our relationships. Rather than relentlessly pursuing an increase in all these gifts, we rejoice in them. We live thankful rather than restless, driven lives, and our mission is centred on the sharing of the gifts we have received. In this way, our lives are not centred on our wealth or our appearance, our status or our success, but rather our attention is drawn to the gift of each day, each step, each relationship.

Our life becomes more a matter of letting go rather than holding on. Our hearts become freer and centred on what satisfies and nourishes best.

YouTube carries a number of clips of Mrs Bucket's outrageous adventures. The DVD is probably available. A visit to the Bucket household will certainly provide an enjoyable few minutes of fun. It may also hold up that mirror that reveals to us that our lives are not quite as centred as we would like them to be.

Holding up the mirror that the Poor in Spirit offer us, could be a healing antidote to the anxieties that can shape so much of our lives each day.

Father Kevin

FRIENDSHIP VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Compeer volunteers provide friendship to someone who is lonely because they've had difficulty with their mental health. Compeer needs volunteers to spend an hour a week catching up with a new friend. Friends meet for simple social activities such as having coffee, going for a walk, or visiting a local attraction.

Training and ongoing support is provided, and you will be connected to a welcoming community of volunteers through social events and catch-ups. Your friendship can make a big difference to your new friend's quality of life, and help reduce the isolation and stigma associated with mental illness.

We welcome all applications from men and women aged 18+, however we are particularly in need of male volunteers aged 40-70 at this current time.

To find out more, tel. 9413 3091.

ACCOMMODATION TO LET AND WORK NEEDED

Work wanted due to financial stress, will do anything. Very honest polite friendly. Available days or evenings.

Also room to let at Huntleys Point.

Ring Mary 0410485217.

Well Done... CONGRATS AND THANKS ZONE

BAPTISMS THIS WEEKEND

Congratulations and a warm welcome to Edith McHutchison, Valentina Rigon, Samuel Holland, Caitlin Earls & Ella Girot, all of whom will be baptized into our Christian community this weekend

CHILDREN'S LITURGY LEADERS

We give God thanks and pray a blessing on our excellent team of Children's Liturgy Leaders who faithfully break open the Good News for our little ones at each of our Churches each Sunday.

May they find great joy and at the same time grow in their own understanding of our faith as they continue this important ministry.

LOUISA COSTA

Our Louisa is marking a special birthday around now. We honour her, thank her for her gentle presence and pray a special blessing for her.

POINT TO PONDER

Lord in a world of many divisions keep beckoning us out of safe havens into your richer fellowship of challenge and reconciliation, sacrifice and service.

Let your kingdom come, your kingdom which is freedom and love, which is sisterhood and brotherhood, which is righteousness and life, which is truth and justice.

This Week... Scripture Zone

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessings on him who comes in the name of the Lord!

Blessings on the coming kingdom of our father David!

Alleluia!

Gospel Reading:

Matt. 25:31-46

In Matthew's vision of the gathered nations we see divine judgment viewed in terms of God's identification with those in need.

First Reading:

Ezek.34:11-12, 15-17

God's protective and healing love is portrayed through the image of the shepherd and his flock.

Response:

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Second Reading:

1 Cor. 15:20-26a, 28

Paul reminds us that when all is subjected to Christ, he will hand over to the Father all embraced within His reign.

Next Week... SCRIPTURE ZONE

First Reading: Isaiah 63:16b-17, 19b; 64:2-7

Second Reading: 1 Cor. 1:3-9

OUR PARISH PRAYER

Loving God,

you are the home for our hearts' deepest longings.

We find our way as families and as individuals only in you, through our brother Jesus, encouraged by the breath of your Spirit.

We thank you for all the blessings we enjoy in our parish family. May we continue to share our gifts of life and love with glad and generous hearts.

May our world be somehow more alive because we have passed this way.

May Mary our parish patron continue to inspire us as we give new birth to your Word in our turn.

We make our prayer in Jesus' Name. Amen.
